

BALL CLUB QUARTERBACK

Summer

OPENING SPACE....

BCQ #28 marks the completion of seven years of on-time publication.

These have been seven eventful years. The HIV/AIDS pandemic is still very much with us. We are in an economic downturn with some possible hope on the horizon. Many special interest clubs/publications have come and gone, most started with good intentions and some failing because of lack of commitment of the people running them.

The BALL CLUB continues to grow, albeit not at the same dramatic rate as in the early years. Many men who joined early on are still members. A significant number of members who dropped out have returned. But personal situations and interests change and some who do not renew their memberships are never heard from again. And, it is sad to have a copy of BCQ returned by the postal service marked, "deceased."

Our format has changed and, in all likelihood, will change some more. In 1992, we still have the same purpose as we did in 1985, to be "a communications network for men who have 'em and men who want 'em." I plan to be running the BALL CLUB for many years to come and have no desire to convert BCQ to a slick magazine that depends on single copy sales and a flow of commercial advertisements.

I value the personal contacts and friendships that have come my way because of the BALL CLUB and I very much appreciate your notes of encouragement that often say, "Keep up the good work!"

Your help is needed. First, we need a few hundred more members! Help me to recruit them. Second, we need a higher percentage of members who have ads. If you don't have an ad, I urge you to rethink your reasons for withholding placing yourself on our "bulletin board." Frankly, I am toying with the possibility of instituting a mandatory minimum listing requirement like, "#CA 999, California 91407," for every member.

Do your part to make the summer of 1992 as hot as possible! Enjoy BCQ #28!

Ken

HOT NUTS

First offered in 1988, HOT NUTS was withdrawn from sale because there was a problem with the master tape. Improved now and back with better picture and sound quality, HOT NUTS is offered as a worthy addition to your video library.

HOT NUTS is an erotic solo performance by a lean, muscular 40-ish man with an abundant cut cock, low hanging balls and a fully shaved crotch. He uses lots of props- leather stretchers, ropes, chains, elastic bandage, parachutes, clothespins, clamps and more. He shows it all to you for almost an hour- front, back and sideways and even does his own private tug of war.

What you may like best is the sight and sound of his beating his cock and balls. This sensual stud really turns on to the pain he can endure. Maybe you'll like him even more as he shows you his asshole, stretches his balls toward it and inserts them over and over again. There's an added bonus of his jewels being held in place with a dildo.

HOT NUTS is not your typical "suck and fuck" video although you're very likely to come while watching it.

A BROOKLYN STEELWORKS VIDEO production and available exclusively from the BALL CLUB. Running time, 59 minutes, VHS only. The price includes shipping by first class mail to any address in the United States. Add $10.00 for shipment elsewhere. Canadian orders cannot be accepted. No liability is assumed in the event of customs seizure.

EXPRESS MAIL VS. PRIORITY MAIL....

EXPRESS MAIL costs a minimum of $9.95 and promises delivery the next day. Even if the promise is kept, the typical EXPRESS MAIL envelope does not fit into my PO box and a note is left for me asking me to pick it up at the window. Sometimes, I may pick up my mail after hours when the lobby is closed so I must wait until the next day and, at that, spend time on line to claim EXPRESS MAIL.

On the other hand, PRIORITY MAIL costs $2.90 for up to 32 ounces. Two day delivery is promised and, sometimes, it makes it in one. If it's reasonable size, it will fit in my PO box and I have no delay in receiving it.

Save yourself some bucks and save me some time! If you're in a hurry, use PRIORITY MAIL. and not EXPRESS MAIL!

NICK GETS IT GOOD

Nick, that lean, lanky stud from NICK'S DICK (AND BALLS!) is back! He's in his mid-40's, has a huge cut cock and ample size balls in a loose sac. He visits his master, a familiar figure to many BCQ readers, a mature man who remains fully clothed.

Nick brings a video, narcissistically displaying his shaved crotch as he vacuum pumps his already large cock to obscene proportions, causing a grotesque swelling under the head. He binds his cock and balls with leather, plays with 'em some more, displaying lots of juicy pre-cum and ending in his milking out a nice load. The master tests Nick further, restraining him spread-eagled in a doorway. Nick gets his nipples clamped, his balls wrapped in elastic bandage, pounded with a lucite mallet, cock and balls bound with leather ribbons and whipped and the bindings removed so as to cause Nick's cock and balls to sail like a windmill. In the final sequence, with Nick lying on the floor, the master dons latex gloves and inserts a catheter in his pisshole. When it's almost all the way in, Nick invokes a "limit" signal and the catheter is removed. The frustrated master ties Nick's cock and balls with rope and calls an end to the session. Audible dialogue complete with street noise. Reasonable production values, including some nice closeups of Nick's equipment. Running time: 98 minutes. VHS only.

The price includes shipping, by first class mail, to any address in the United States. Add $10.00 for shipment elsewhere. No liability is assumed in the event of customs seizure. Canadian orders cannot be accepted.

DEAR KEN....

Dear Ken,

I see that we now have prisoners as BALL CLUB members. I thought you knew the tricks some of these cons play- asking for money and gifts, trying to cash counterfeit money orders and getting emotional hooks into unsuspecting people on the outside.

Is this a new policy? Are you going to continue to try to sign up prisoners as BALL CLUB members?

Dear +++,

Of course, I know that some prisoners are involved in scams, the worst of which you mention. More often than not, though, it is not because a prisoner is a member of a club or subscriber to a publication. Rather, it is some naive member/subscriber who sends his copy of a publication like BCQ to a prisoner he hardly knows who then passes it around to others in the general prison population some of whom use the ads as a device to try to scam their correspondents.

There is no rigid policy about prisoners as members of the BALL CLUB. I do not solicit them specifically. However, if a person who is incarcerated seeks to join the BALL CLUB, I will not reject his membership solely because he is in jail. I know that anyone who is in prison is there because he was convicted of a crime. But, is that fact alone reason to deny him contact with the outside world?

In the case of #A7.16, he has not tried to hide the fact that he is in prison. He has written that his interests are such that he would not even confide them to a fellow inmate and that he has the ability to keep his copies of BCQ securely private. I am satisfied that he, personally, is sincere.

Finally, I would advise you and all BCQ readers not to send money or extravagant gifts to any person, prisoner or not, who is not well known to you and to move slowly when it comes to emotional commitment. It is very difficult for anyone to impose on another person and cause that person to be a victim without the victim's permission.

Ken

Dear Ken,

I'm going to hold off joining for a while. It may be a bit heavier than I care for. Maybe later.

I like your zip code!

Dear @@@,

I find it curious that a significant number of people are overwhelmed by the things in the BALL CLUB that they don't like rather than to zero in on the things they do like. Yes, I'm sure that there are things in BCC that are "heavier than" you "care for" but have you considered that your interest in saline infusion would be thought of as overly kinky by some?

The choice is yours but I do believe that any person with even the slightest interest in balls will find lots that he can relate to in the BALL CLUB. We are a wonderful means to establish communication with others who share our interests.

My zip code is a matter of coincidence. One of our members has the letters N-U-T-S corresponding to part of his telephone number!

Ken

Dear Ken,

Here's a new picture for BCC #28.

My phone has been ringing off the hook and my PO box has been stuffed to the stretching point. Everyone seems to begin with, "I just saw that picture of your cock and balls in BCC #27 and..."

Jerry (#FL 42)

Dear Jerry,

Once again, a member has found that the BALL CLUB can be a good communication network when used properly.

Ken

Dear Ken,

Enclosed is my renewal along with ad copy. I had to discontinue my ad a few months ago due to some personal responsibilities and a recent residence move, which left me very little free time.

Thanks again for your tireless energy in getting BCC out each and every quarter. I have been a subscriber for three years now and never get bored in reading and responding to the personal ads, the stories and advertisements for the numerous products and video reviews. If I do not like a particular story or ad, I read on to something else.

So, tell your critics to get lost and find another publication if they are not happy with this one. You make what you want out of a membership in the BCC. The option is up to the reader, not the publisher! The cost is certainly minimal for hours of enjoyment, too.

I've met some very interesting people in person, via the mail and over the phone. No, we did not always click together but many have been great encounters of the hard cock kind.

Hope to meet you one of these days. Keep it up!

David (#CA 215)

Dear David,

Thanks for your renewal. Your new ad will start in BCC #28.

No need for me to "tell" my "critics" anything; you've done it all. Any member can get at least as much out of the BALL CLUB as he's willing to put in.

As for meeting me "one of these days," I'm quite accessible.

Ken

Dear Ken,

I have been really busy with my long awaited divorce.

My dear divorce departed somehow stole a copy of BCC and tried to use it as a tool in the divorce. The judge chided her and her attorney for using stolen material. Basically, she lost face big time and really got burned. I laughed in her face and promised her a year's subscription if she was that desperate and bored.

I'm getting my life back together again.

Dear #####,

Consider yourself lucky, all the more so because you live in a state full of rednecks!

I'd be happy for your ex-wife to be a BALL CLUB member but she must sign the application form.

Ken

John Randall has been the chief honcho at the KATHARSIS project ever since it started several years ago. He is conscientious and sincere in his desire to bring his members the very best in intense fiction, articles, photos and drawings.

The themes are violent in nature. John believes that violent urges within us are controlled best when they can be acted out in fantasy situations. He does not advocate violence in real life. Rather, he promotes the cathartic action of viewing violence in fictional form.

The KATHARSIS project has manifested itself in many forms over the years. John has experimented with various magazine formats and an option format enabling each member to order only material concerned with themes of personal interest. Among the subjects with which KATHARSIS has been concerned are anal and oral sex, scat, water sports, incest, necrophilia, bestiality, strangulation, mutilation, electrocution, hanging, drowning, decapitation, crushing, whipping, bondage, humiliation, slavery, rape, dominance, psychological torture, deprivation, castration, burning, amputation, cannibalism, gladiators, ad infinitum.

This is tedious and expensive to produce and membership in the KATHARSIS project is not cheap. The present format brings a large bundle of varied material each month. By the time you read this, John may have changed the format again. Be assured, though, KATHARSIS is a labor of love. If you have even the slightest interest, write for more information. A single/sample issue costs $90.00. Many different payment plans are available.

BALL CLUB VIDEOS

MAN AND STEEL

$45.00

Our most popular video. A hung, hairy chested, hairy assed hunk in his early 30's inserts all kinds of gadgets in his asshole pounds his balls with a mallet, among other things. Gobs of cum, some of it mixed with blood and a wonderful shot of his ass as it settles on the control lever of a tractor. Technically excellent. 111 minutes.

EUROPEAN BALLS

Four hunky men let you look in on two hours of solo and group ball play. Much of it is intense; none of it is brutal. A bit of dialogue in German and English. Cum freaks will have a feast. A little fuzzy but very watchable.

ACHING BALLS

A sleazy, raunchy and disgusting video that runs only 20 minutes. A 40-ish guy is led into the woods by a female dominatrix. She nails his sac to a tree stump and pierces both balls right through with two hatpin type needles. You see and hear all. There's a second sequence that's much too dark in which our hero gets hanged by his balls.

NICK'S DICK (AND BALLS!)

Nick is a lean, lanky guy in his early 40's. He has tough, plum sized nuts and a cock that never ends. They get worked over with a billy club, tied down to a bondage board and his balls are installed in a ball press. In a brief second sequence, a catheter is inserted in Nick's pisshole. The video ends abruptly as the piss starts to flow and Nick cries out, "Too much!" Very unprofessional and a bit shaky. 35 minutes.

BALL BUDDIES

A long haired "thirtysomething" blond and an older gray haired guy with balls of steel get together for a hot hour of trading off and testing each other's endurance. Heavy action and SSM overtones. Visible faces, rope, a ball press, clothespins, clamps, thongs, a leather ball slapper, mouths and hands. Lots of moans and groans and an explosive cum shot. Two cameras were used and the color values are not always the same.

FILL 'EM UP !

Three humpy fortysomething guys get together for a session of scrotum filling. They show you the whole process, infusing as much as 2 liters of saline solution. Two of 'em leave, after having difficulty packing their huge nuts into their clothing but one remains for a special showing. Explicit but not technically perfect. 51 minutes.

VHS only. The price includes shipping by first class mail, to any address in the United States. Add $10.00 (total, per order) for shipment elsewhere. No liability is assumed in the event of customs seizure. Canadian orders cannot be accepted.

BC, POB 1501, Pomona, CA 91769

VACUUM PUMPING....

WILL IT BE BULK OR LENGTH?

Some time during your pumping experience, after you get past the newness of it all, you'll likely make a decision that you're going to concentrate on achieving bulk or length.

The guidelines to follow when aiming for one or the other apply equally whether it's the cock or the balls you're working on. If it's bulk or width you're after, you need to be in tubes that won't confine you but allow you to expand outwards. If it's length you're after, you need a tube as narrow as you can handle and still be comfortable in. You won't start to lengthen until you've filled the tube out to the sides. Then, stretching will begin.

Other factors can also affect the growth rate. "Stage" up in size, quarter inch diameter increases for the cock and half inch increases in tube size for the balls. This allows all areas along the length to expand more uniformly, thus helping prevent that extra puffiness you get in some areas over others. It also leads to faster expansion than just getting into a big tube initially. It's best to fill out completely in the tube you're in before staging up to the next size.

The length of time you're in the tube also determines how effective your enlargement endeavors will be. It's better to have one long session than several short session. This is due to the fact that it takes a while to stretch out the muscles and tendons to their fullest. After that is when new growth begins. Every time you begin pumping, this stretching has to occur and takes away from the time you're working on new growth. Therefore, one longer session will give more actual new growth time than several shorter sessions totalling the same time. As a general rule, the more time you spend in the tube, the more results you will get.

There is another school of thought which says that if you add weight to your tube or use a heavier, thick walled, tube and let it hang down, that gravity along with the suction will give increased gains.

Concentrating on one area- either length or bulk- will also produce some results in the other area. But, if you are particularly interested in one area, you must concentrate on that area for maximum results.

VIDEO REVIEW....

LEATHER MAN NIPPLES, 60 minutes, VHS, $39.00 plus $4.00 shipping. Order from: Fusellier, 7985 Santa Monica Blvd. #109/180, West Hollywood, CA 90046.

Hunky, mature leather man, Sid Fusellier is an attractive fixture in the LA scene. In this solo video, he lets the viewer look in as he shows off his huge nipples.

Wearing leather arm bands, cap, a chest harness and boots, he pumps, pulls and ties up his already ample nipples. The pump is a unique one, with two inch nipple tubes that help create knobs so huge that they look like extra cocks. As Sid works his nipples, his cock, unfortunately hidden in his white trunks, gets bigger and bigger.

When Sid does pull his trunks down, a nice cut cock and well formed balls are revealed. During the last scenes, Sid comes several times, shooting his cum on to a waiting leather boot.

There is a repetitive, added soundtrack that I found boring. I'd rather listen to Sid's heavy breathing!

LEATHER MAN NIPPLES is a well made home video, technically satisfactory and priced fairly.

THE STICK....

I was sitting at home, watching the snow fall outside my window. It was coming down hard and the street looked slick. The local bookstore is usually a quiet place in the middle of the winter, especially during a snow storm but I had been sitting in the house all day and was ready to do something (or anything). Even though most people stay home until the roads can be cleared, I decided to see if anything was happening at the bookstore. Am I glad that I did!

As I walked in the back door, I could see only the attendant who made change for the video machines. I walked down the hall, past the booths, getting more disappointed with every step. There was no one in the bookstore but the attendant, myself and the occupant of one of the booths. I almost decided to leave but, instead, bought a couple of dollars worth of tokens and headed back to the booths.

I walked past the open doors hoping that the lone occupant was in a booth with a glory hole. He was. I entered the next booth and closed the door. I bent over to look through the glory hole and my eye met another eye. He stood up quickly and I could see that his jeans bulged in front with a long shaft running down his leg and a great ass held tightly in place. He wore a dark blue sweat shirt and jacket. He began rubbing his hand across the bulge and I reached through the hole and grabbed at his ass. He pulled away and bent over to invite me to share his booth. I quickly moved next door, knowing that going to the bookstore was a good idea after all.

His name was Mike. He was about 25, at least 6' tall with black hair and a good body. He said that he was nervous about doing anything in the booth and asked if I'd like to go to his place for a while. That was more than I had ever expected and I quickly replied, "Yes."

As soon as we got there, he invited me into the bedroom and brought out some pot. I was starting to get hard. As we smoked, I realized that I was in for something special. There was a water bed and assorted toys including a nightstick with a side handle. He put a video in the VCR and took off his sweat shirt. I could see a hard chest and rippling stomach muscles covered with thick black hair.

The hair flowed in circles around his pierced nipples. I walked over and began licking his chest and nipples, pulling on the rings to make his tits stand out. He pulled my shirt off and dropped his jeans to his ankles. We stopped long enough to finish undressing.

Mike asked me if I wanted to try something he described as "a little rough." I had no idea of what he wanted to do but I said, "Yes," after he assured me that he would stop if I didn't like it. He threw me on the bed and took a pair of steel tit clamps and hooked them on tightly. Then, he rolled me over on to my stomach and grabbed my balls, pulling them so hard that it was all I could do not to let out a scream. Yes, this was going to be a very special night!

After tugging on my nuts, he grabbed a piece of leather about 4" wide with snaps on it and collared my balls so that they protruded from the bottom. My cock was trapped between the bed and my stomach as Mike gave my balls a hard tug. He began slapping them between his hands, changing the pace and impact every few moments. I asked if I could roll over and he grabbed my ankles and flipped me over. He slapped my cock around for a few minutes before telling me that it was time for us to get down to business.

A little more grass and I was ready for anything. My cock was still hard and my balls felt wonderful. Mike threw me on the water bed, grabbed my legs and lifted them in the air. I thought he was going to fuck me with his throbbing cock. Instead, he picked up the nightstick and coated the hand grip with lubricant. With one smooth move, the end of the nightstick was 8" up my ass and the side handle was beating my balls. He gave me a hit of poppers as he worked the stick in and out. By this time, I was working my own cock unable to control the ecstasy. Mike started to spin the stick between his hands, causing the handle to slap my nuts each time it came around. Shivers of pain shot through my balls and to the tip of my cock. The stick kept hitting a spot, deep in my ass, that made me want to come.

Mike sensed that I was ready to come but he wasn't ready to let that happen. He pulled the stick out and moved my hands away from my cock. Hardly missing a beat, he slipped a condom on his hard 9" cock and put it in my ass where the stick had been. I reached up and played with the hair on his chest, working my way down to his balls. I stroked them gently, pulling them down and making them stretch with each thrust of Mike's cock in my ass.

What happened next was hard to believe. He ordered me to pull his balls as hard as I could, squeezing them between my hands as I pulled down. I felt his cock get even harder. He grabbed my cock, forced it close to my stomach and began stroking it. My collared balls were sticking straight up heating against his stomach as we fucked.

There were more poppers. I couldn't stand it any longer and cried out that I was about to come. He grinned at me and began pumping his hips and my cock even harder. His balls still hung down, bouncing against my ass. Soon, we were both panting and moaning. He cried out, "I'm cumming," pushing his cock as far up my ass as it would go. Again, he hit that sweet spot and, with one more thrust, I began to shoot cum all over my chest. Mike pulled out and stripped the rubber off his pulsing cock. The tip was dripping. With a deep groan, his cum starting shooting out landing on my stomach and chest and mixing with my own. The last shot flew all the way up to my face landing sideways over my lips. Mike rubbed his hands across my chest making sure that our cum was mixed together.

Mike fell on top of me with a wide grin. When he rolled off me, I could see his chest hair coated with a mixture of our cum. We talked for a while. "I've got lots more toys," Mike said. "Maybe we can try a ball press next time."

I've been to Mike's place several times since that first time. Each time, he introduces me to another adventure. I don't go to the bookstore anymore.

SALINE INFUSION : Part 2- The Saline (a first hand account)

Welcome back! Now, a bit more of the infusion process around the parts that you may do for yourself. My general education includes some biology, chemistry and math and I have a practical bent as well. I mention these to convey that a reasonable understanding of "things technical" helps if you don't purchase your "kit" from a medical supply house. The most critical area that I needed to understand and to proceed from was and is clean vs. sterile procedures. I queried a nurse/neighbor and a medic friend about these and leave it to you to research and come to an understanding and practice of them. If you are impatient or not willing to carefully follow these standards, then permit me to suggest that you go on to another BCQ article or the personals. This "sport" is not for the squeamish nor for the inattentive or drug-impaired mental space!

Chemistry and a little practical home-ec comes into play next if you don't have easy access to sterile normal saline or to UNISOL IV eye contact saline solution without preservatives (they produce stinging or burning, if infused). Initially, I shared a friend's homemade brew and later purchased 0.9% Sodium Chloride Injection USP either in 250ml or 1000ml drip bags by the case at my local medical supply store. (Ask Ken, at BCQ, about the "how to buy" medical supplies.) Yet to make saline solution at home is fairly easy, if somewhat time consuming, but that's where patience comes in. You'll need sodium chloride (NaCl) from your druggist ("for a chemistry experiment"), about 2 gallons of demineralized water (for steam irons), 6 quart canning jars with lids and rings, a wide bottom kettle (to sterilize the jars, lids and utensils) and either a stainless steel 6 quart pan or a pressure cooker. Got all that? Then, let's discuss a bit of the how-to.

First, normal saline is nothing more than the basic fluid volume of the blood without the blood cells and other electrolytes. It's equivalent is a shy teaspoon of sodium chloride per liter of demineralized water or $4\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons per gallon. Note: If you use household salt, there are additives/stabilizers added to help it pour ("when it rains, it pours") and/or iodine. This is not necessarily a problem but, when your solution cools, these will settle to the bottom and me be decanted from the major volume and discarded before you use it.

Next, may I suggest that you read up on vegetable canning processes, especially on pressure cooking and jar preparations. Overall, they emphasize cleanliness from infection. First, wash your hands. Then, prepare a gallon of hot, soapy dishwater amended with 2 tablespoons of chlorine bleach (Chlorox) and 1 tablespoon washing soda. These help remove oily films and to clean the surface. Wash jars, rings, tongs and funnel; rinse thoroughly and set aside to drain. Place a piece of new foil near the stove. Place open kettle with jars, neck down, and rings and lids on stove; add about $1\frac{1}{2}$ " of water and bring to a boil for 15 minutes before turning off; awaiting filling. Insure that each lid is immersed. Set the tongs on the foil; later upright one jar for filling and a ring, leaving the lid in the water bath until ready to seal. Did I mention using demineralized water to boil the jars? Note that the water will rise inside the jars as they cool (check your physics textbooks for "why?").

Near sea level, about 15 minutes boiling insures sterile solution; use a pressure cooker for 12 minutes, if unsure. I boil about 6 quarts demineralized water then add $6\frac{1}{2}$ shy teaspoons NaCl and boil another minute or so. Immediately upright a jar, fill to the base of the neck, place a new "clean" lid on and tighten down a ring and set aside; repeat for remaining liquid. Leave these to cool to room temperature. This will keep for about 2 months if the seal is unbroken. Remember to listen for the "ping" as the lid seals itself and the "hiss" when it's removed upon opening. You are not to reuse the lids; buy fresh ones as potential bends or hardened seal rubber may not insure tight fit.

Next up would be considerations for getting into this sport. But, if I don't get any feedback via BCQ mail, I'll stop here. This is our club and I don't make any money writing!

EARLY MORNING WAKE-UP CALL

I was tired when I went to bed but had every intention for a good solo session. On the bedside table was everything I needed- poppers, tit clamps and suckers, elastic for my balls and my newest toy, a foreskin stretcher and expander.

But I must have fallen asleep before I even started on myself. A ringing sound pierced through my subconscious state and, for a few seconds, I hardly knew where I was. The light was still on, specs on my nose and my toys untouched, still in neat order. The phone was clearly ringing.

As I rolled over to grab the telephone, I was aware of a roaring hard on while ready to blast anyone that rang at this time. What was the time?

I heard a familiar gruff voice, "Is that you, cocksucker? There are two fat cocks here that need a cunt face like yours for face fucking and two sets of well stretched balls that need attention. Get your ass over here." The line went dead.

I was wide awake with a painful erection. I ran to the bathroom, showered and put on a clean sweat suit.

What time was it? Fuck me dead; 3:30 AM! Bloody bastards, high as kites, horny beyond belief, wanting to be serviced.

The army was a wonderful training ground for getting ready in no time. No traffic on the roads, no cops either so I could have a lead foot. The radio played a Bach chorale. I had a flash of Anthony Perkins in PHAEDRA, singing his heart out to similar music and going over the cornice. I slowed down.

I cursed, most violently, as I realized that I had slammed the car door and left the keys in the ignition. Oh, well, a job for the auto club in the morning or whenever we were done.

The front door was unlocked. Bloody hell; they fucking well knew I'd come running to their bidding. Still, who could resist these two great studs in heat?

The sound of rock music came throbbing through the closed door. When I opened it, there was that intoxicating smell of male sex mixed with poppers, grass and candles. Strobe lights were flashing. Spotlights illuminated the cleared area. The two of them were gyrating to the music.

Their asses out, their balls in parachutes joined with a short chain, pulling and tearing to the beat. They had each other by the tits, pulling, squeezing and twisting them, while their balls were stretched, almost like remote control, by thrusting their buttocks out. Fat, pumped up cocks were flopping all over the place.

They didn't even look sideways as I entered, too engrossed in the pain and pleasure they were giving each other. Kneeling between them, I started to play with both cocks, pumping and stretching to the music. Slowly, I brought them both together. With both cocks in one hand, I started to pull the chain with the other.

Knowing what I was there for, I had already taken out my dentures and, opening my mouth as wide as possible, was able to shove both cock heads into my vacuum sucking mouth. The heat was perfect to suck cock heads and yank on balls.

Above me, there was a change as a mouth replaced fingers and teeth bit into a fleshy pectoral area. I heard a scream as teeth must have dug into the brown orb. One moved backward and a cock head almost slipped out of my mouth. I pulled harder on the chain and my gums bit deeper into the fleshy undersides of the two cock heads.

I unsnapped the parachutes and had each hand full with a low hanging ball sac filled with large gonads. Two cock heads filled my mouth to capacity as I fingered, played with and squeezed those four magnificent balls in their soft, stretchy confinement.

Two cocks thrived and swelled. Piss slits expanded. Pre-cum was oozing. Strobe lights were flashing. Two bodies gyrated in a pagan ritual of lust and desire. Their bodies flashed with colour, like flames from a fiery pit.

Bill cried out, "I'm coming, I'm coming." I released the cock heads from my mouth and white gobs slathered all over Stan's belly.

Stan was easy to take care of. I laid down so he could shove his big balls into my gaping mouth. My nose was right on his ass crack. I could even see his pink fuck hole. I chewed and bit those balls while he jerked that fat cock of his, slamming his ass into my face. A mighty growl preceded the release of male juice.

By the time I had cleaned up, Bill was snoring away on the couch. Stan was standing near the sink in the kitchen making himself a cup of tea. The bright overhead light showed that his cock was still dripping some juices on the polished vinyl floor.

The kitchen clock stated 6:30.

"I'd better ring the auto club and get bailed out. I locked my keys in the car."

"No, you won't," Bill called from the living room. "We haven't face fucked you properly and my balls ain't half sore yet!"

SUPER MARKET SERVICE

My first sight of him was at crotch level. A huge, gorgeous bulging crotch in a pair of faded, stained jeans and not more than a few inches from me! I was, at that moment, kneeling down in the supermarket to extract a packet of biscuits from the back of a shelf but, as I became aware of this huge packet of manhood next to me, all thoughts of shopping disappeared from my mind. I gazed transfixed by his two massive balls and huge, thick cock.

"Say, you seem to be having trouble down there. What're you looking for?", a voice growled from above me,

"Meat balls" I replied, looking up, to see above me 6 feet of power. He was 45, maybe a little older, with short, greying hair and moustache. Apart from the jeans, he was wearing a close-fitting sweat-shirt which only helped to accentuate the mass of body hair that it partly concealed. Chest hairs sprouted over the neck of his shirt and down to his powerful wrists and, turning from my adoration of his crotch, I looked up into a hairy armpit, as he lounged against the shelf above me.

He laughed harshly at my reply. "You're certainly in the right place for balls, baby! I'll meet you outside in a couple of minutes", and strode off down the aisle.

In a dream - a dream of being sucked and fucked, of my cock and balls being pulled and pounded - I rushed through my shopping, waited for what seemed an eternity at the check-out and found him leaning against the railings outside, his massive bulge and muscular thighs beckoning me.

As I approached him, he growled "Shit man, that tight arse of yours sure needs a real good fuck. You wanna follow me home?" And with that he turned and got into his car.

"Did I need a fuck?!", I thought, as I raced towards my car, "Did I need a fuck?!" Shit, I just wanted to yell to everyone in this parking lot that I was going back with this fantastic guy with his huge cock and massive balls and that he could fuck me all day long if he wanted to.

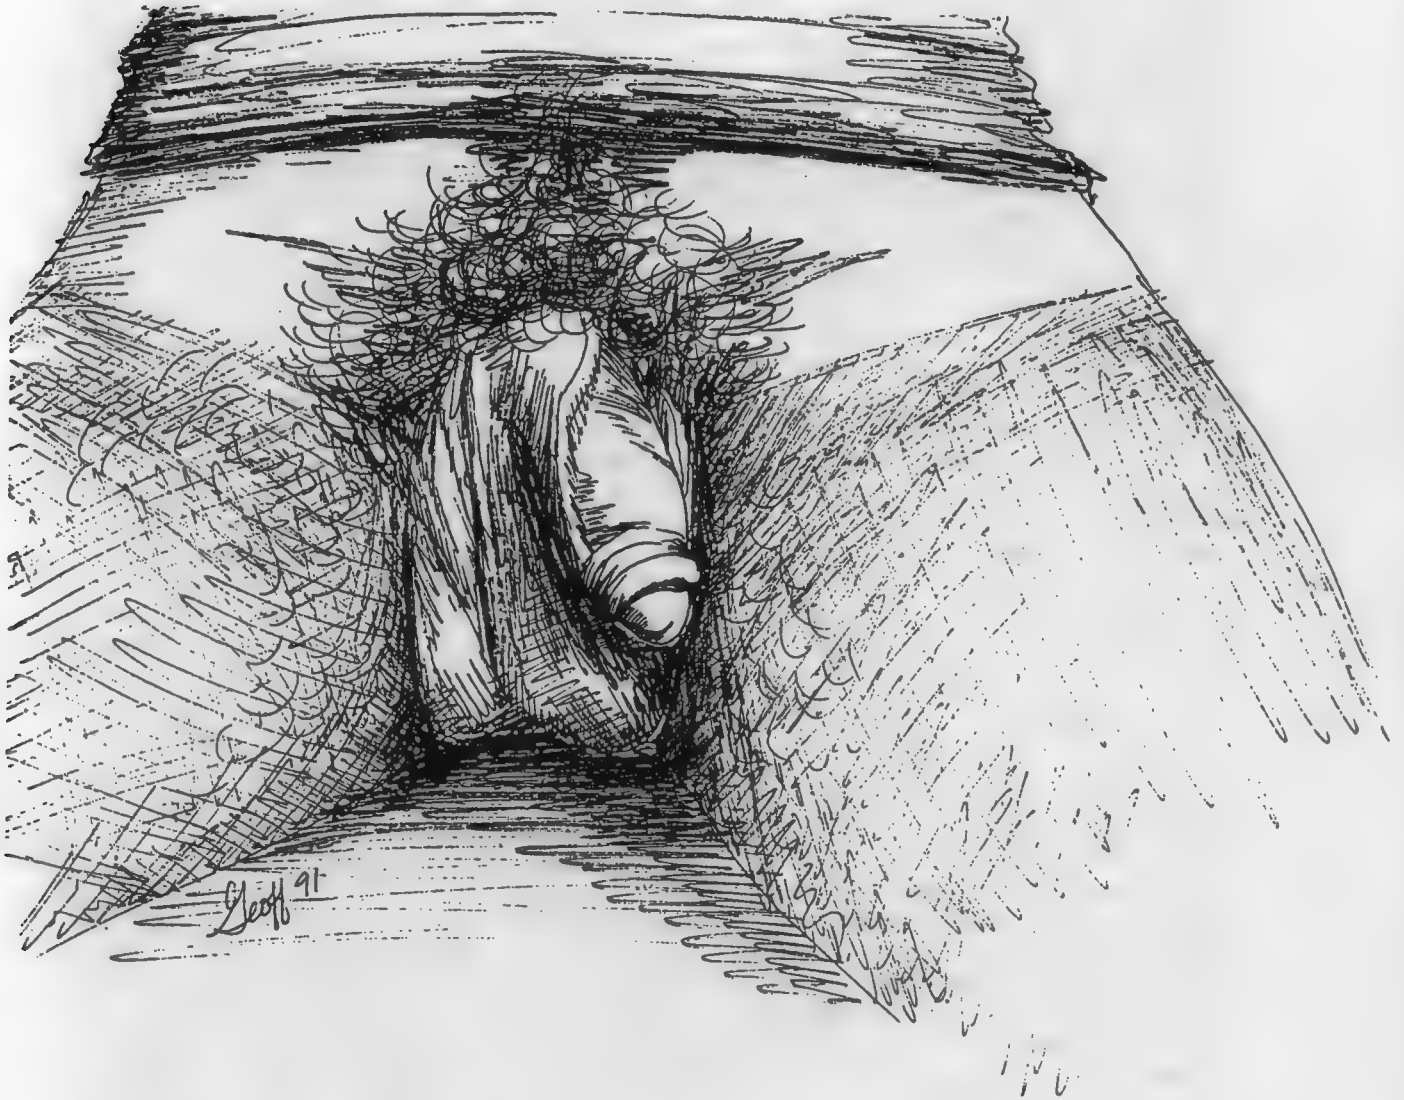

Back at his place, he lead me straight to the bedroom. A huge dildo, cockrings, chains, thonging, lubricant jars were on the bedside table. He stripped off his sweat-shirt, revealing his hairy chest in all its glory, and dragged me roughly towards him. His mouth sought mine and he plunged his tongue deeply, passionately into my throat. As his gripped me, I could feel his massive meat rising against my body, while my cock, strained for release in my jock-strap. Suddenly, he whipped my sweat-shirt over my shoulders, pinioning my arms behind my back.

"Kneel, you bastard", he commanded, "kneel and get to work on my cock and balls. Suck me hard and long." And with that, he forced me to my knees and shoved his straining crotch into my face. I smelt the gorgeous manly smell of his jeans and licked and sucked the material in mounting excitement, tasting the piss and cum that he had left there from previous sessions.

With my arms still pinioned in his tight grip, I started to unzip him with my teeth. Slowly as I worked it down I felt, rising before me, this great, thick, pulsating prick. Eventually it crashed out of its casing and I buried my face deep into his cock-hairs, licking them, nuzzling them, smelling the delicious, pungent smell of manly arousal. Then slowly, teasingly I began to work down the length of his ten inches of throbbing, cut cock, each stroke of my tongue bringing me closer to his huge, shining knob. Finally, I tasted the sweet, sticky oozings of pre-cum and ran my tongue round and round his lovely piss-hole, that piss-hole which I knew would later cover my face and chest with streams of sticky, creamy cum and shower me with cascading spurts of golden piss. But for the moment, my mouth and lips, my mind and body were totally absorbed in sucking his great manly meat and, as I worked it slowly, lovingly right into my throat, so that my nose again sank into his forest of cock-hairs, he released my arms so that I could start working on his balls. Each hand gripped one of the low-slung, massive nuts, I squeezed and pummelled them, I pulled and separated them, I sucked and bit them, thrilling to his groans and commands.

Suddenly, when I felt that my whole being, my mind and body, were just one great cock and balls, he dragged me roughly to my feet, ripped off my jeans and jock-strap and threw me to the bed, straddling across me. I lay spread-eagled, thrilling at the sight of this hairy creature with his huge erection inches from me. He took from the table a long piece of leather thonging and began to wind it round and round my balls, tighter and tighter. Then he pulled the two ends back hard through my arse, so that my balls disappeared between my legs in delicious agony, and finally tied them in front round my stiff prick. Repeating the process on his cock and balls, we were then bound in a throbbing web of thonging, our every movement extracting excruciating pleasure. He reared up in front of me, dragging our balls further back as he did so, and grabbing our thick, red and pulsating cocks in his fist, he bound them with a massive cock-ring which he circled round and round, clipping the studs into place until all that was visible was our two shining knobs, purple from the pressure. Finally on to our tits he clipped vicious metal clamps joined by chains. Now joined by cock, balls and tits, we became as one, our moans, our gasps, our groans, expressing the pain and the pleasure which every movement produced. I felt that my whole body was bursting but wanted more and more. My balls were aching ecstatically as they were dragged back and forth, my cock seemed to reach to the skies, the bite of the clamps was more and more intense and thrilling on my tits. I cried and screamed, wanting release but then never wanting it to stop, as this hairy, powerful creature shoved and pulled the full force of his huge body against mine. With each thrust and each heave, the pain rebounded and sent exquisite shocks of pleasure rippling through both our bodies. We went on and on, but it had finally to stop and as we relaxed, he slowly, lovingly began to unclip the cock-ring and untie the thonging, leaving the release of our tits to the last. We lay back in each others arms, our bodies pulsating. I looked down at our red cocks still with huge welts upon them, fingered his livid tits and caressed his heavy balls dragged unmercifully down in their heavy sack. As I did so, I thought of all the wonderful cum that was stored in them, the cum that I was going to receive over my body and I started to kiss him passionately.

I was awakened by the flushing of the john. His semi-rampant prick was wet with droplets of piss as he came back to the bed. He shook them onto my face and I lent up and licked his delicious piss-hole, savouring the harsh taste. This seemed to produce the effect of kick-starting an engine. Suddenly he reared up, shoved his knees between my thighs and up-ended my arse. He began to rim me hard and passionately. I could feel his tongue winding its way into my arse-hole, his moustache scraping against the sides of my cheeks. Deeper, more insistently it went in and I began to squirm with new-found pleasure and excitement. Reaching then for the lubricant, he began to massage my arse in readiness for the dildo that he began to shove slowly but remorselessly up into me. I was now ready for it, aching for the walls of my hole to be opened by this huge rubber prick and spread my legs wide to receive its full length. As it went right up and he began to funk me with it in slow, long rythmical strokes, he swivelled round to kneel above me. His head was then between my legs, his mouth sucking my cock and his hands grasping the dildo. His wondrous crotch was suspended above my face. I began to work on his heavy balls dangling above me, squeezing them, pounding them. In unison, as he built up the pressure and speed of the dildo up my arse, so I exerted more and more pressure on his two huge eggs. Finally I got them deep in my mouth, my face thrusting right up into his arse. I sucked and I bit and at the same time I started to massage his cock. I got that rigid, thick ten inches of glorious manhood in my fist and started to pound it. Suddenly I longed for his cum all over me. I wanted that superb rod of manhood to explode above me, to shower me in cascading spurts with his juice. Pulling on his balls with my mouth, I grasped his cock in both hands, jacking it off as fast and as hard as I could in a frenzy of anticipation. Realising what I was after, he left the dildo deep up my arse and spun round. He gripped his great tool in his fist and continued the jack-off. I watched entranced, glorying at the sight of a man performing his most intimate act. His hand sped backwards and forwards as I fucked my arse with the dildo. I gazed transfixed at his hairy arm fisting his cock, his heaving chest, his beautiful, stiff tits. I reached up to squeeze them. He began to gasp and moan. I watched him stiffen in delirious delight, I saw his huge piss-hole expand.

"Shoot your cum, you bastard, shoot that glorious load of cum all over me", I encouraged him, as he positioned himself above me. I felt the whip-lash of his hand as it pounded like a piston, and then, with a series of deep, protracted gasps and cries, he lent back, arched his muscular back and exploded. I watched the powerful flow of great streams of cum pour out. They splattered over my face, into my hair, over my chest. A huge volcanic explosion of wonderful cum. How I longed to bath in it, to rub it into my body, to cover myself with it. He relaxed and sighed heavily, his eyes closed. His prick was now becoming flaccid and from its piss-hole oozed the last gorgeous drops of jissom. I scooped them up with my finger, not wanting to waste even a drop, and began to massage the cum slowly into my chest. Opening his eyes, he smiled and began to help. Our hands moved across my face, neck and chest, into my armpits and down to my crotch. I was covered with his manly juice, my cock-hairs were sticky and white with it, my body smelled deliciously of its sharp odour. Oh, if I could bottle it, if I could drench myself in it, if only I could turn on that wonderful cock at will, like a tap, and watch it explode over me time and again.! These thoughts raced through my mind as we lay down together to rest and gather strength for what was to come.

After a while he got up and came back with a six-pack of beer. Can after can went down as we lounged against the bed-head, admiring each other's bodies, slowing fondling our balls, squeezing our tits, generally recouping our energy. Finally, he said, "Time to wash ourselves down", rose and went into the bathroom. I stopped to slip on my jock-strap and when I followed him, he was squatting in the bath playing with his semi-erect cock. He signalled me to get in and I lay down between his legs. I watched as he slowly raised himself, holding his cock before him, concentrating deeply. I waited excitedly until finally his beer-filled bladder started its release. A great golden shower cascaded upwards and splashed down onto me. I could feel it running off me and into the bath. Another great spurt issued forth, the jock-strap was soaked and I could feel the piss rising around me. I then took my pulsating prick from the dripping pouch. He waited in turn. Our actions were slow and deliberate, each of us concentrating on the release of our golden liquid. He knelt immobile above me, waiting for the glorious moment. I felt the piss rising, I shuddered in excitement and watched as a curving stream splattered across his thick, hairy chest. His hairs matted, the piss ran down him in rivers, through his belly-button and into his growth of wondrous cock-hairs. I let go another stream from my piss-hole, hitting him hard in the chest. He growled contentedly. Suddenly we were pissing together great spurts covering our faces, necks and bodies. We were gasping and shouting with excitement. He threw himself on top of me, our mouths anxiously seeking each other, thrilling to the delicious taste of hot, fresh piss, as it swirled and lapped round about us. I felt his cock growing against me and I gripped his slippery, wet balls and pulled them as hard and as tight as the piss would allow. As we thrashed about, he ripped off my soaking jock-strap and rammed it over my face. He began to thrust his fingers forcefully and demandingly into my arse-hole. Then he stood up - I gazed enraptured by his manhood in all its primitive, dripping state - reached up to take a condom from a shelf, unwrapped it and shoved it at me to roll it down his rigid, shining piss-covered shaft. He lifted my legs and began forcing his magnificent prick up into me. Wet and sticky as we were, my hole manipulated already by the dildo, his condom-covered cock slid up and up with glorious ease. Slowly, deliberately, he began to make his way in and out of me, his cock totally taking over my body. I gazed up at his wet, piss-soaked chest, I clutched at his heavy balls, dragging them up into the cheeks of his arse, and as his cock thrust deep inside me, deeper and deeper, harder and harder, my whole being seemed to become one glorious phallus. All I knew or cared was that he was inside me, on top of me, over me, fucking me, fucking me to infinity. It went on for what seemed hours - I never wanted it to stop - but then his action became more insistent, his thrust became deeper still, his gasps more rasping and I knew that he was finally going to fill that condom with another massive load of cum. I grabbed my cock and started jacking off. My hand was moving against his wet belly. We both became frenzied in our movements, splashing, shouting, moaning, glorying in wonderful manly sex. I felt his cock stiffen, his juice pour out and I let loose my cum as a thanks-offering all over him. Globes of it stuck in his hairy chest, streams of it ran down his cheeks. He slowly withdrew his cock. It felt wonderful. He eased off the cum-filled condom. It looked wonderful. I wanted it to start all over again - there is, of course, that packet of biscuits that I still have to buy.

A SESSION WITH MY TOYS

It didn't look like much in the catalog but I ordered it anyway. For just a few bucks, I received several soft strips of black leather, each one about eight feet long and a half inch wide. After just a little experience with them, I decided that the simplest things can be the best.

I wrapped one of these black leather ribbons around the base of my cock and balls, tightening it with a couple of turns to keep it in place, much like a cock ring. Then, I wrapped it around the base of my ball sac, working the balls farther and farther out, and finally tucking the loose ends under one of the coils of leather. By this time, everything was hard and purple and the balls were starting a slow swell. As I stroked my cock, my wrapped balls bounced against my hand.

I stopped myself as I was about to come. I called a friend in Birmingham because I wanted him to listen a while and, maybe, come in his ear but he wasn't home.

Time for a change. I took the strap off and put on a heavy item called "bull balls." This is a leather sac weighted with lead shot. You put your balls into it and close it up with a velcro strap and a chrome strap. From then on, it's the stuff dreams are made of! Without touching it, it feels as if you're holding your balls in your hand or, maybe, your best friend has both your balls in his mouth and is gently pulling them. Sway them and it's like you're fucking someone, your balls crashing into his. Stand up suddenly and the feeling is sharp with some pain but it hurts good!

I got hard as hell but was able to prolong the occasion for an hour or so. When I came, I thought of my friend's mouth around my balls like he did the other night, and I almost forgot that it was me and me alone that was creating this feeling.

I shucked off the "bull balls" and looked ruefully at the indentation the tight strap had left in my sac. It disappeared in a few days and I knew that repeated sessions might make my balls hang lower.

Imagine my shock when I pissed in the toilet and saw the reddish tinge in the water. But, I remembered I had eaten beets for dinner!

BOOKSTORE VIII.....

I had not been to Denver for several Years, and was surprised to find that my old neighborhood, the capitol hill district, now had adult book stores, and topless bars along Colfax Ave.

When I lived there, it had been a busy neighborhood business district, with no action. I had to go downtown to cruise. If I lived here now, I could step out my door for all the cruising I could want.

Walking east, near the old Ogden Theatre, I was passed in the opposite direction, by a handsome blond jogger, wearing sweat pants, sneakers, a sweat shirt tossed over his broad shoulders, and all too obviously, nothing else. His well developed chest was covered with a thick down of blond hair covering his well tanned muscular skin.

My eyes were drawn to the flopping, unaltered, cockhead, very visible in the sweats as he jogged along the street. It was still warm, though well passed midnight, traffic was light, a good time for a daily run. I thought that when I got back to the hotel I might take a late night run, rather than my usual morning time.

Our eyes met as he passed, I knew he was, like myself, out for more than a run. I quickly diverted my glance back to the fat prickhead outlined by the soft cotton fabric. As he passed I watched his firm butt bounce, as he lopped down the sidewalk, stopping suddenly, turning, as if he knew I was watching.

He pulled on the sweatshirt, to go into one of the adult book stores. I decided not to wait for an invitation, and retraced my steps, following him.

The place was clean, carpeted, well lighted, and not busy. The blond was nowhere in sight. I got some tokens, and entered a side room where the peeps are.

A tall black man, who easily could have played for the Broncos, was patrolling the area, rattling an apron full of tokens. Several booths were occupied, I wandered around trying to find the blond.

The room had several aisles of booths, which were, I judged, very small, to small for activities guard would find unacceptable. The linebacker/guard was raping his fist on doors, telling occupants to drop tokens, or leave. As I made my second pass of him, he glared, heading me to the nearest door, which abruptly opened.

The blond stepped out of the booth, his hard cock pushing the sweat fabric out, tent like in front of him, as he changed booths. We nodded, I passed the booth he occupied with the door partly open.

He stood watching the fuck film, cock in hand, caressing it gently. I stopped to watch, then spotted the guard, and stepped into the next booth. I watched two minutes worth, did not drop another coin, as I could tell the blond had not.

I opened the door as noisily as I could, the blond followed suit, we walked toward the exit as if we both read the same script, which we had.

Back on Colfax Ave, the warmth of the night air seemed more, not only because of the air-conditioning we had just left. He motioned with his head, vest, I followed.

Removing the sweat shirt, he paused before cross the street ahead of me. I could see the silhouette of his still hard dick protruding, arch like, flared corona, distinctly visible.

We crossed Colfax in silence, walking down Clarkson Street two blocks, passed the Church. I thought he might be leading me to the bushes around the church. I had done my share of worshipping in those sacred shrubs.

We passed, however, I followed up the steps to the pedestrian overpass, in front of the church school playground, where, in silence, he stopped.

The cement sidewall is waist high with cyclone fencing on top. In the middle of the bridge he stopped, dropped the sweat pants to his ankles, tossed the shirt on the walkway, and sat, legs spread, balls dragging on the shirt, soles of his sneakers flat together, his cock arched toward his left thigh.

I continued the silence, broken only by my pounding heart, and the cars zooming by under us. I knelt between his legs to massage the cock, feeling the wet cockhead, I bent over to suck him.

I was overwhelmed by the sweaty, musky smell of his crotch, thrilled at the taste of his damp skin. His prick, responding to my tongue's touch, soon was a stiff mouth full, I impaled myself greedily.

When his prick was thoroughly wet with saliva I lifted his fat scrotum, releasing the cock, to lick the balls I held in my hand. This brought the first response from the blond.

"Yea." He grunted. "Lick them nuts, yea."

I did as I was told, savoring the thick blond hair covering the nuts which had a salty flavor, and manly scent. Soon I had tongued around the sack, and was under the balls, swabbing the thick cock root with more spit.

"You like balls?" He asked. I could not answer without stopping what I was doing, and decided to continue would be the best answer.

"Oh God yes, suck them into your mouth."

I began with the right, then after wetting that testicle I spit it out, starting on the left, I swished that one around with my tongue, warming the balls, making the sack loose, so the orbs hung lower.

"Push them both in." He directed.

His balls were plum sized, the sack not fully extended. It was difficult to get them both in my small mouth, but finally, after much pushing, sucking, and straining my jaws, I succeeded. He groaned with delight.

The slurping noise my not closed lips made, and the constant traffic below us was all I could hear, while I stroked his prick, took in his aroma, and sucked the wonderful nuts filling my mouth. As I did so I realized that the sack was getting looser, and I could get the balls deeper in my mouth.

"Suck 'em hard! Really hard. Don't worry about hurting them."

I increased the pressure on the balls, as I could close my mouth tightly now that the scrotum had relaxed. He moaned loudly, then removed my hand from his cock so he could do the stroking. He wet his hand, I could hear the squishing noise it made sliding over the hard rod.

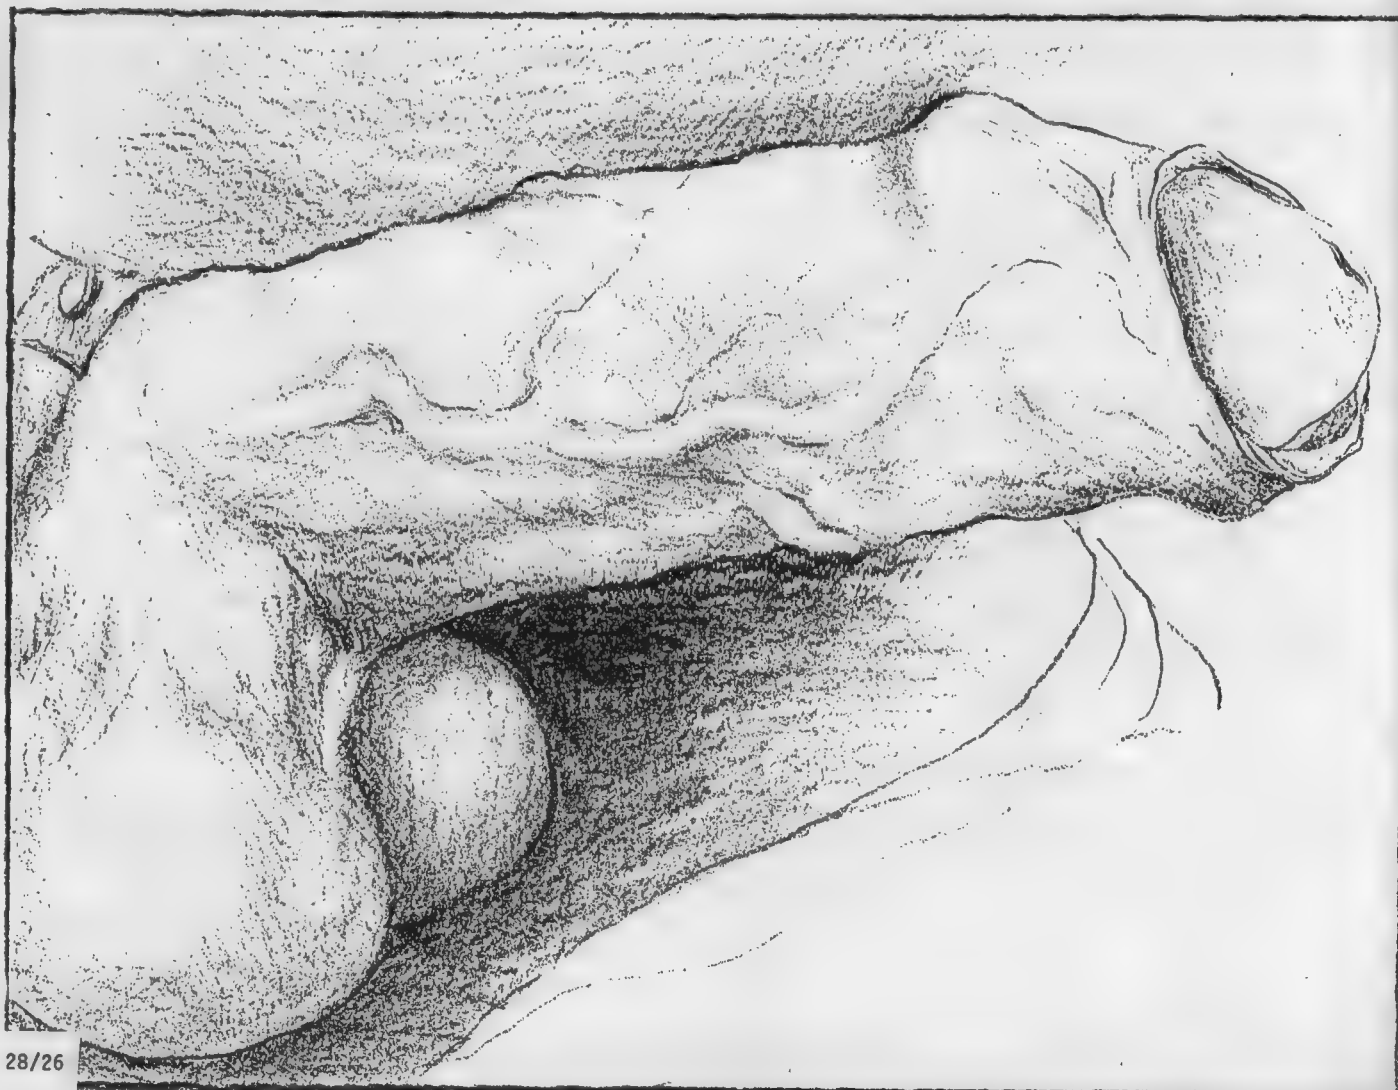

"Pull hard with you teeth! Suck! I got to shoot!"

I clamped tightly down on the stretched scrotum, lips locked increasing the suction. His fist hit my nose on it's downward strokes which were rapidly becoming frenzied.

"Oh yea. Pull them fucking balls out of my guts." He groaned, I sucked even harder.

His body convulsed as he spent his nut's load. It streaked over his tanned, blond haired skin, in giant gobs. He sobbed, and grunted, holding his prick by the base, as the fat head expelled thick cum.

Holding the balls firmly in my mouth, while the ejaculation took place, I raised my head, planting my teeth in the scrotum, as instructed, pulling the sack hard.

He lay panting, and moaning for some time, then calmly pulled his balls from my jaws grip, he lifted his sweat pants, as he rose, grabbed the shirt, and jogged off south without so much as a good bye, or thank you.

I sat on the deserted overpass savoring the flavor of his balls, picking blond hairs from between my teeth, contemplating relieving myself, then and there. Cars continued to zoom underneath, bringing the reality of how dangerous my position was.

Watching the endless stream of headlights, my passion peeked, streams of man juice bathed windshields, as my hips strained upwards so my cock could clear the wall.

I never would have dared to do any of these things when I had lived in Denver, it was just as well the bookstores weren't there then.

#FL 01 (28) As you can tell by reading these ads, each of us is turned on by different things. What turns me on is size! Big tits, big or long foreskins, thick and/or long cocks and, especially, big and/or long balls, stretched holes. Any one or a combination. I fit some of the categories. How about you? If you're big, you've just found a friend who's interested in you! Why not get in touch and share that rare beautiful quality so few have? Let's communicate and see what happens. Write or call between 11 PM and 2 AM, eastern time. Dick, 3874 Main Highway, Miami, FL 33133 305/448-8207

#FL 02 (30) WM, 46, 5'9½", slim, good looking, Italian. Big, natural, hairy balls. Into hot top action and different fantasy trips. Was a Ph. Ed. instructor/coach on the high school level in New York. Into jocks, cups, briefs, speedos, gym shorts- all workout gear and "ball play," especially in wrestling situations. I had my guys tease, humiliate, cause embarrassment or give a good hurt via "ball play" in a very "straight" way. Giving private instruction in the act of grabbing, plucking, scratching and getting under a hunk's jock or cup to get it done without getting caught- seeing the grin on my guy's face and a "thumbs up" and the reaction of the other guy, usually on his knees, red in the face and pointing to his crotch- just unreal! I also like armpits- making a guy wet his jock, using the "finger" especially on a hunky butt. It does wonders as a head trip and pretty helpful for piles. All that sort of action was done by straight guys without them realizing how it made their coach "feel." My D.I. in the service taught me most of those moves, which I then "refined" for high school wrestling. He said, "Fuck 'em all- if they don't want to be humped, then grab 'em by the balls, put them under (which is also very hot) and then take care of their butts." At present, I cannot receive mail as I'm living with someone. However, write me, with a phone number if possible, and I'll contact you when I can by phone or will write you back. Only safe action or great J/O. HIV-. Bob D'Angelo, 1800 S. Ocean Blvd. #1408, Pompano Beach, FL 33062

#VA 16 (30) And, to think I used to be a virgin at ball play! I have become quite a sadist, making a lot of nuts ache with pleasure. I am 51, 170#, 5'8", 36" waist, cut 6", average balls and want to make yours hurt. Think how much you'd like to be spread-eagle under my control, either restrained or submissive, having your testicles tortured. Think of having your nuts tied, pulled, stretched, slapped, squeezed, crushed by my fingers or by my ball press. Small balls or small dick really turn me on but I like any size to work on. Dimensions, shape, size, age not as important as your desire to have me make your testicles hurt- as much or as little as you want. Think of all the nut pain/pleasure you can have. Then call me to set up a meet. J.C. 804/825-9153

Plus put your action filled mind in high gear? Abuse my balls, plus, sending me over the edge begging you for harder action. Not into master/slave scenes... only heavy, abusive, hard non-stop action. #VA 30 (29) There's nothing like good sodomy between two willing men. My boss has called me into the office for sexual harassment because my dick was hard and too noticeable in my pants. At least let me phone fuck you. Dave 804/520-5718

Long term togetherness is fine, strict and under rules, to heal oversex problems. Each letter will be answered and, for therapy, I will pay all costs. This will also bring good humiliation and the first step to feel the strictness. Also, I can be your patient. Foreskin too tight. Older teacher preferred. H.O., POB 130 A1220 Vienna, Austria

DENMARK

#DK 01 (31) I am looking for 3 kinds of men: 1: A passive guy, who likes to give his balls in for a hard treatment, and who will show or tell me how much he can take, a guy with a high pain level, who will enjoy to be taken to his limits or maybe just a little bit further. 2: An active guy who like to manhandle a strong set of balls, work on a big fat cock and, perhaps, whip a bare ass hard. 3: A guy who likes just as much to give as to take, a guy who will lay back and display his tools, who will let me try his balls out with stretchers and weights, who will press them forward so I can punch them with my fist or slap them with one of my whips. I am a Danish leatherman, with mustache, 51, 5'9", 155#, have a well-equipped playroom with a lot of home made toys and come to the USA around twice a year. I also like to have some hot videos with my video camera and I develop and copy black and white photos. Poul, Stadfeldtsvej 28, DK2500 Copenhagen/Valby, Denmark
